Prayer Workshop

The Catholic Charismatic Renewal Diocese of Peoria is sponsoring a prayer workshop on Saturday, June 18th from 1:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m. The workshop will be led by Deacon Bob Pomazal at the Spalding Pastoral Center, 419 NE Madison Ave., Peoria, Illinois. The workshop is offered in preparation for those serving on a prayer team in the Prayer Room at the annual Catholic Charismatic Renewal Conference. ## Conference Speakers

Walter Matthews has been Executive Director for the National Service Committee of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal of the United States since January 1993. He began working for the National Service Committee as Associate Director in May 1984. He has been involved in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal since January 1972 and has served in various leadership positions in the Renewal for over 40 years.

In April 1990 Pope John Paul II appointed Walter to a five-year term as a member of the Pontifical Council for the Laity. The department is at the direct service of the Pope. His term, which had been extended one year, ended in April 1996. He has also served as an Advisor to the U.S. Bishops' Committee on the Laity.

He is a native of New York City and is married to the former Claire Casey. The Matthews have three adult children (two of whom are married), two grandchildren, and live in Locust Grove, Virginia.

Barbara Lanzdorf Heil grew up on the West Coast, and as a student, had a life changing encounter with the love of Christ. She crossed the country to Ashland, Virginia where she learned a life of prayer, worship, and devotion at an international ministry community. Her hands-on training included kid's camps, inner city ministry, missions, ministry to the poor, and crusades around the world.

Barbara was part of the staff at the Calvary Campground in Ashland, Virginia for over 20 years. Her ministry experience is wide and varied, from living in Hong Kong to minister in Asia, to living in Jerusalem, to being on staff at a street mission in San Diego, California to minister to the needs of the homeless during the beginning of the AIDS outbreak.

She has ministered in 35 nations, has been a missionary, an evangelist, and pastor. She has spent the last few years traveling the U.S. and the world over conducting worship seminars, retreats, and conferences, leading mission trips, offering prayer and counseling, and seeing thousands healed and set free inside and out, equipping lives for the Glory of God.

Barbara didn't know until recently that she had been baptized as a child in the Catholic Church, and after much prayer and deliberation, she received the Rite of Confirmation in St. Paul, Minnesota in April of 2013.

Today, based in Iowa, Barbara continues to be involved in a wide spectrum of Christian endeavors and ministers with Protestants and Catholics alike.

A widow for 8 years, Barbara has recently married! She lives in Iowa with her husband, Jeff. She is the joyful mother of 4 and grandmother of 2! Together she and Jeff have 8 children and 9 grandkids!
